MIER College of Education (Autonomous)
Accredited by the NAAC with 'A+' Grade

CRITERION I – CURRICULAR ASPECTS
1.2 ACADEMIC FLEXIBILITY

1.2.4 Students are encouraged and facilitated to undergo self-study courses online/offline in several ways through
1. Provision in the Time Table
2. Facilities in the Library
3. Computer lab facilities
4. Academic Advice/Guidance

1. Relevant documents highlighting the institutional facilities provided to the students to avail self-study courses as per Data Template

Photographic Evidence

Metric No. 1.2.4- Students are encouraged and facilitated to undergo self-study courses online/offline in several ways
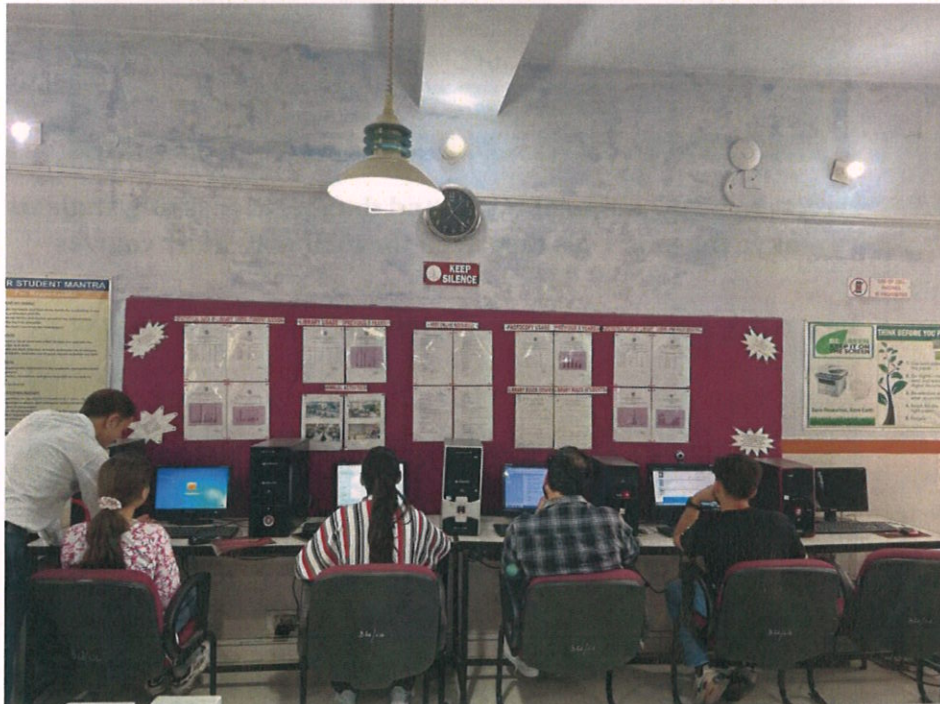

Facilities provided in the Library

Access to a vast array of books and databases ensuring students have the materials they need for their self-study courses
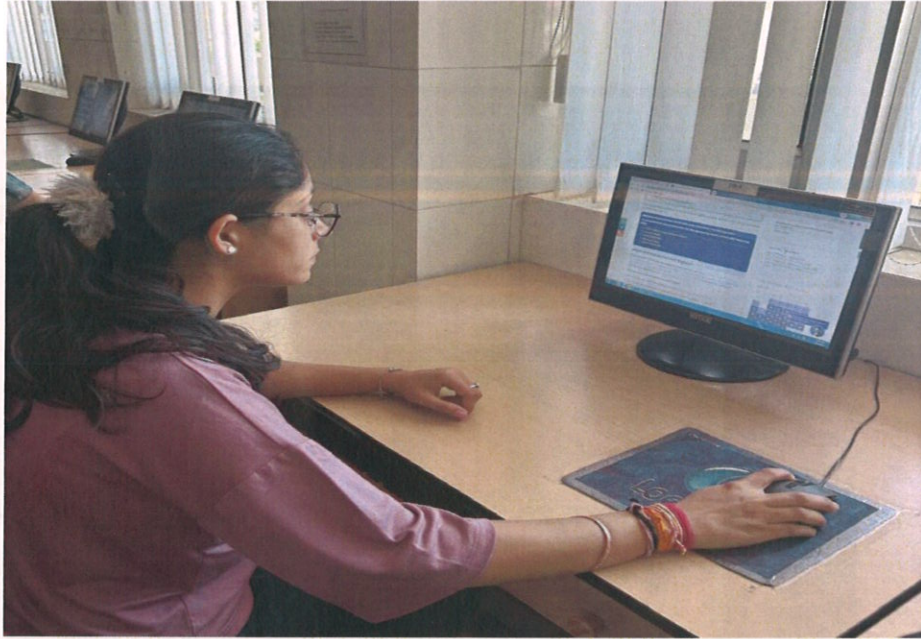

Students refer Thesis and Dissertations for their research work

Computers with Internet facility in the library being used by students for their self-study
Conducive environment for focused self-study learning available in the library

Reprographic services in the library used by students for photocopying, printing and scanning their study materials of their Self Study Courses

National and International Journals accessible to students for reference

Students have access to E resources via N-List within the library & regular workshops are organized on how to use digital resources for self-study

PDFs for each course are uploaded on Google Classroom for students to access

Students making notes in the library

Facilities provided in the Computer Lab

Equipped with up-to-date software and high-speed internet, computer labs support students in accessing online course materials for their courses

A full-time lab assistant provides technical support to the students accessing online course platforms

Students have access to SPSS in the Computer Lab for analyzing research data

Students utilizing survey tools for their research in the Computer Lab

Students preparing their assignments for self-study courses using MS Office in the Computer Lab

Seal and Signature of the Principal